

August Newsletter

Special Events

Nature Time with Ranger Tasha (no sign-up required)

Date: Tuesday, August 4

Time: 10:45 am

Details: Park Ranger Tasha Daniels will be at the library to teach us all about Bugs! Enjoy a story, learn hands-on and make a craft!

Touch Needed Animal Encounter

(sign-up required)

Date: Wednesday, August 5

Time: 2 pm

Details: Get ready for a wild afternoon at the library! Join us for an interactive, up-close animal encounter. Patrons of all ages will have the chance to meet fascinating creatures, learn about their habitats, and discover how we can protect wildlife. This thrilling, educational event is free and open to the public.

Wildlife Out Your Window: Amazing Secrets of the Creatures Around You

(sign-up required)

Date: Saturday, August 15

Time: 11 am

Details: Author Brad Timm will be here with a presentation that will forever change how you see the natural world around you. You'll discover surprising secrets about animals you thought you knew all about - like the fact that Blue Jays aren't even blue!

Story Book Saturday (drop-in program, no sign-up required)

Date: Saturday, August 29

Time: 11 am

Details: Discover the magic of community at our special Story Time! Join us as we explore the joy of working, playing, and reading together in this heartwarming program designed for our youngest patrons and their families!

